Easy Read

What this Easy Read is about

It is important to make sure as many people as possible can understand what you write.

Everyone should be able to get information they can understand.

In the UK, the Equality Act says that organisations must produce accessible information.

At Disability Equality Scotland, we do training that helps people write in ways that are easy to understand.

All our training:

- is inclusive and accessible

- uses ideas from our members.

Our members are disabled people all over Scotland.

Our Easy Read training

We do different kinds of Easy Read training:

- Easy Read training online, for lots of different people to come to.

- Easy Read training for organisations, for a group of people who already work together.

- Work with 1 writer, to help them get better at writing Easy Read.

- Training that is made just for you and your organisation.
In this training we look at your work and help you make it better.
